Unto His cause on earth forevermore COLUMBIA, S. C.

*The Methodist Episcopal Church, of Washington street, Columbia, S. C., on the night of the 17th February, 1865, set fire to from within, and burned to the ground.

Keep your Little Brother out of the Room John Smith-you've heard of him-is yery bashful; is too bashful, in truth. He was born and raised in the country. His father gave him a good education, and allows him plenty of money. But John, with all other attachments, never could accustom himself to the society of females, not because he did not like the girls, but because his shy nature would not permit him to associate with the fair sex. It once happened—not very long ago either—that John's father had some very important business to transact in the city. He also had some very particular affairs to attend to at home, which demanded his personal attention, and not possessing the power of ubiquity, he delegated his son John to transact that in the city.

John, being thus commissioned, immediately proceeded to the city, and to the residence of his father's old friend, whom he found to be a very nice old gentleman, with a beautiful daughter, and gold specta-

John was ushered into the parlor (a new thing for him,) and motioned to a seat-no!

a sofa, (another new thing.)
But we must use his own language: I took my seat and made observations. Everything was fine! Fine carpets, fine sofas, fine tables, fine curtains, fine books, fine everything, and especially a fine young lady who was dressed in fine silk, fine satin, and who had fine curls, and a fine appearance generally.

After chatting with the old gentleman a few minutes, he took down his-hat, told me to make myself at home for an hour or two, and left-left me alone with his daughter, and a small, mischievous boy, the young lady's brother. I didn't relish the situation at all. The idea of keeping a city belle engaged in conversation for two hours; perdition! Silence reigned in the perlor for a short time you may bet parlor for a short time, you may bet. I amused myself as much as possible with the boy—that is, I loaned him my knife and watch key, and watched him cut holes in the carpet with one and spoil the other. I don't know what I would have done had it not been for that boy-he was so good to attract one's attention, you know.

It's true he asked some startling questions, occasionally, such as this, for instance: 'Are you goin' to court sister Emily?" such things must be expected under such circumstances.

Miss Emily, thinking, no doubt, that to be a good hostess, she must her guests engage in conversation, asked me "how I liked country life," etc. She said that "it must be a beautiful sight to see the laborers, male and female, romping on the new mown hay on New Year's day; that she always did think she would like to spend a Christmas in the country a nut-gathering with the village lads and lasses; that it always had been a myste-and lasses; that it always had been a mystery to her how they got eggs off the trees without breaking them."

In return, I thought to keep up my part of the conversation, it was necessary for me to quote poetry and the like, which I did. Among other quotations, I unfortunately repeated the well-known lines of Shakspeare:

"There is a divinity that shapes our ends, Rough-hew them as we will."

At this juncture, the boy, who had perched himself upon my knees, looked very earnestly in my face and said:

"Divinity shaped the end of your nose mighty curus." I'm certain that I wished somebody would spank the young rascal. We talked of hills, mountains, vales, cataracts—I believe I said waterfalls, when the boy spoke up and said: "Why, sister's got a trunk full of 'em up stairs—pap says they are made of hoss-hair."

This revelation struck terror into me and

This revelation struck terror into me and blushes into the cheeks of my fair com-

It began to be very apparent to me that I must be very guarded in what I said, lest said boy might slip in his remarks at uncalled for places, in fact. I humand my conversation to him. I told him he ought to go home with me, and use what nice chickens we had in the country. Unindirly I mentioned a yoke of calves my brothers owned. The word calves ruined all. The little fellow looked up and said; "Sixter's got a dozen of 'em; bat she don't wear 'en only when she goes up town'o' windy days."

"Leave the room, you unmannerly little

"Leave the room, you unmannerly little wretch!" exclaimed Emily, Tleave imme-

'I know what you want me to leave for, replied he; "you can't fool me—you want to set in that man's lap, and kiss him like you did Bill Simmons the other day—you can't fool me; I'll jes' tell you. Gim me some candy, like he did; then I'll go. You think because you've got the Grecian bend that you're smart. Guess I know a thing or two. I am mad at you, anyhow, 'cause pap would a bought me a top yesterday, if it hadn't been for your getting them curls, dog-gone yer! You needn't turn so red in the face, 'cause I can't see it for the paint: There ain't no use in winkin' at me with that glass eye o' yourn, 'cause I ain't goin' out'n here, now that's what's the matter with the purps. I don't care if you are twenty-eight years old, you ain't no boss o mine, you old fool."

That is all of the story that John related. He says he don't know how he got out of

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

THE reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, the system seemed where the system seemed staturated with corraption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism, undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeabling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence, the occasional use of a bottle of this SARSAPARILLA'is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints, genebottle of this SARSAPARIILAA is advisable, even when no active symptoms of discase appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints, generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrafulous disease. Also, in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Utcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhwa or Whites, Uterine Utcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute directions in each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Steepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

CASH ASSETS JANUARY 1, 1869, $1,171,000.

INCORPORATED 1864.

Has been in operation but four years, during which time it has assured a larger amount than any Company in the United States, during a corresponding period of existence. One of the chief causes of its organization, was the forfeiture by several Northern Companies of the policies of Southerners, during the war. The leading officers of this Company protested against this injustice, and on its consummation, withdrew and organized the "GLOBE MUTUAL," on principles more liberal and just than those yet adopted by any other Insurance Company. In the event of death in battle or in a duel, the equitable value of the policy will be returned to the heirs. ALL other Companies forfeit it. In case of suicide, the FULL Policy is paid. No restriction on travel. This Company has, in its guarantee fund of $500,000, an element of strength possessed by no other Company. It offers the entirely new feature of Probability Endowment, which gives the largest possible sum for the premium paid. No other Company possesses this feature. Insures children of any age. In the moderation of its premium rates, in the variety of its tables, in its dividends and in the security offered insurers, it invites comparison with any other Company. JOHN C. JOHN P. THOMAS,

Jan 19 WADE HAMPTON GIBBES.

The commissioners arisulture, in his report, for the year, 1866, speaks as follows:

There can be no doubt of the general additionation of all mall liquors. In England and other countries, where heavy penalties are imposed, and an increasing vigilance practiced to detect and punish such frants, by a system of "spection of all malt liquors missulactured before exposed to sale, the practice is never common. How much more in this country, where there are no laws on the subject, and no officer to carefully analyze the products of the brewery? Some years ago, Professor, Mapes, of New York, analyzed the beer from a dozen different breweries, and all were found adulterated with noxious substances. It is said that the sale of drugs to brewers, is a profitable part of the trade. This is perfectly infamous. Cocculus indicus, (fish-berry,) nux vomica, (dopbutton, from which strychnine is obtained,) are some of the delectable substances found in beer! These are potent poisons, and the brewer found using them should be drowned at once in one of his own vats. The British Parliament passed a law to prevent this nefarious business. The following is an extract: No druggist, vendor of or dealer in drugs, or chemist, or any other person, shall sell or deliver to any licensed brower, dealer in or retailer of beer, knowing them to be such, or shall sell or deliver to any licensed brower, dealer, or retailer, any liquor called by the name of or sold for coloring, from whatever material the same may be made; or any material or preparation other than unground brown malt, for the darkening the color of worts or beer, or any molasses, viticily, honey, quassia, cocculus indicus, grains or paradise, Guinea pepper, or opium, or any extract or preparation of be used in worts or beer for or as a substitute for malt or hops; and if any druggist shall offend in any of these particulars, such preparation, &c., shall be forietted, and may be seized by any officer of accise, and the person so offending shall forfeit five laundred pounds."
